

City of Palm Desert Commissions and Committees

The following is a list of the various City Commissions and Committees, depicting the area of responsibility for each:

Architectural Review Commission

Reviews the building design and landscaping of all commercial and multiple dwellings to assure compatibility with the City's long-range objectives of being a community of quality, broad vistas, and taste. Meets the second and fourth Tuesday of each month at 12:00 Noon (Community Services Conference Room).

Art In Public Places Commission

Responsible for the City's public art program including placement of selected sculptures throughout the community. Works with the community, its businesses, and its schools to educate all groups in the area of visual art. Hosts Palm Desert Community Gallery exhibits and receptions. Meets the second Wednesday of every month at 9:00 a.m. (Community Services Conference Room).

Housing Commission

Provides input to the City Council on housing policy and procedures; housing proposals, programs, and strategies; and reviews and makes recommendations on proposed affordable housing developments. Meetings are held on the second Wednesday of the month at 3:30 p.m. (North Wing Conference Room).

Parks & Recreation Commission

Reviews all recreational-related concerns of the City and recommends policies in the recreational areas. Meets on the first Tuesday of the month at 8:30 a.m. (Administrative Services Conference Room).

Planning Commission

Reviews all land use applications and recommends to the City Council long-range policies and objectives as they relate to socioeconomic concerns of the City. This includes periodic review and revision of the City's General Plan, recommendations on specific plans to carry out General Plan objectives, as well as drafts of regulations required to execute the General Plan; advising the City Council in connection to administration of the State Map Act and the California Environmental Quality Act; and periodic review of the City's capital improvement program. Meets the first and third Tuesday of each month at 6:00 p.m. (City Council Chamber).

Palm Desert Commissions and Committees

Public Safety Commission

Responsible for providing a public forum to consider law enforcement and comprehensive public safety matters and to make recommendation to the City Council regarding those matters. Meetings held the second Wednesday of the month at 3:30 p.m. (Administrative Services Conference Room).

Rent Review Commission

Meets on an as-needed basis to adjudicate the City's mobile home rent control ordinance, which was adopted in 1984. The Commission receives testimony and renders fair and impartial decisions as they relate to this ordinance (City Council Chamber).

Audit, Investment & Finance Committee

The Committee reviews and assists with the decision-making process for investments and deposits of City funds. Meets bimonthly on the fourth Tuesday of the month, 10:00 a.m. (North Wing Conference Room).

Building Board of Appeals

Meets on an as-needed basis to hear appeals regarding interpretation of the Uniform Building Code and condemnation and abatement of dangerous structures. May ratify alternate materials and methods of construction that are not specifically recognized in the Uniform Building Code. (Community Services Conference Room).

Citizens' Advisory Committee for Project Area No. 4

Provides input to the City on matters directly related to the development or redevelopment of commercial, industrial, and public uses in Project Area No. 4. Membership reserved for residents of the Project Area, which is bounded by Country Club Drive, Washington Street, Fred Waring Drive, and Eldorado Drive. Due to the Palm Desert Redevelopment Agency's dissolution effective February 1, 2012, in accordance with legislation ABx1 26, future meetings, if necessary, will be scheduled on an as-needed basis. (Administrative Services Conference Room).

Citizens' Sustainability Committee

In February 2010, City Council approved Palm Desert's Environmental Sustainability Plan and Greenhouse Gas Inventory to help ensure that the City's resources continue to be conserved and managed effectively. The Citizens' Sustainability Committee is composed of nine industry professionals that review proposals, offer comment, and help develop appropriate policies and actions to meet the Plan's goals. Committee will evaluate changing needs and future demographic trends regarding sustainability in the following six resource areas: the Built Environment, Energy Management, Materials Management, Regional Air Quality, Transportation Resources, and Water Management. Meetings held quarterly.

Cultural Resources Preservation Committee

Created as part of the City's Cultural Resources Preservation Ordinance for the purpose of reviewing and making recommendations to the City Council in order to promote the public health, safety, and general welfare by providing for the identification, designation, protection, enhancement, perpetuation, and use of cultural resources that reflect themes important in the City's history. Meets the last Tuesday of the month at 9:00 a.m. (Administrative Services Conference Room).

Palm Desert Commissions and Committees

Hotel & Signature Events Committee

Established in early 2014 to advise City Council on tourism, hospitality trends and/or programs related to the economic development and stability of tourism and hospitality in Palm Desert, to assist, retain, and expand these businesses. Membership consists of: 2-Hotel General Managers with over 100 rooms, 2-Hotel General Managers with less than 100 rooms, 1-Representative from the Convention & Visitors Bureau, 2-Councilmembers. Meetings held bimonthly on the first Wednesday at 4:00 p.m. (North Wing Conference Room).

Library Promotion Committee

Recommends programs and policies which will enhance the usefulness of the public library to the residents of Palm Desert. Meetings held on the third Wednesday of the month at 3:00 p.m. (Administrative Services Conference Room).

Marketing Committee

The Marketing Committee provides evaluation of the City's annual marketing and media plans, participates in the creation of an annual marketing budget, including review of all print and electronic media advertising and collateral materials, and makes recommendations for special events requesting financial support from the City. Membership consists of representatives from the following specific segments of Palm Desert's business community: large hotel, small hotel/motel, large retailer, small retailer, shopping center, restaurant, culture/arts, real estate, local attraction, and tourism advocates. Meetings are held quarterly on the first Tuesday of the month at 3:00 p.m. (March, June, September, December) (Administrative Services Conference Room).

Sister Cities Committee

In 2006, the Palm Desert Sister Cities Committee became a private organization, now known as the Palm Desert Sister Cities Foundation, 45-580 Portola Avenue, Palm Desert, CA 92260. Applications for service may be obtained by contacting their office directly, phone (760) 333-4629; fax (760) 346-5988.

Youth Committee

Established in early 2002 to provide the City Council with input on issues of interest and concern to the City's youth, including recreational facilities and programs, transportation, public safety programs, regional concerns, local legislation, advertising and promotion, cultural outreach, a wide variety of special events, historical preservation, educational facility and program needs, environmental issues, anti-drug and smoking programs, etc. The Youth Committee is comprised of youth ages 13-18 who reside or attend school within Palm Desert, with meetings held the second Monday of each month at 6:00 p.m. (Administrative Services Conference Room).

IMPORTANT NOTE: Each individual appointed to a City committee or commission will be subject to the City's Conflict of Interest Code. The Code requires designated positions to file a Statement of Economic Interest in which the appointee must disclose all reportable investments, interests in real property, and business positions.

Chapter 2.34 COMMITTEE/COMMISSION MEMBER REQUIREMENTS

Note

* Prior ordinance history: Ords. 569 and 784.

2.34.010 Terms of appointment—Residency requirement—Unexcused absences—Term length.

A. The beginning date for all terms of appointment to any city committee or commission will be January 1 and the ending date will be December 31, with the exception of appointments made to fill unexpired terms of office, or appointments made to fill new positions created during the year, but which will all be ultimately based upon the calendar year thereafter. Following expiration of the term of office, each member shall continue to serve until either he or she is reappointed or his or her successor is qualified and appointed.

B. All terms of office for city committee and commission members will be four years, unless otherwise specified in the establishing ordinance, resolution, or bylaws therefor. Each member of a committee or commission shall be eligible for reappointment at the discretion of the city council, recognizing, however, that it is the city's goal to allow as many qualified and willing individuals as possible an opportunity to serve their community.

C. Residency within the city limits of Palm Desert shall be a requirement for appointment to a city committee or commission except in cases where the city council deems it appropriate to appoint a nonresident to a board that has need of a specific expertise offered by a nonresident.

D. Three unexcused absences from regular meetings in any one year (January 1—December 31) shall constitute an automatic resignation of members holding office on boards that meet monthly.

E. Six unexcused absences from regular meetings in any one year (January 1—December 31) shall constitute an automatic resignation of members holding office on boards that meet twice monthly.

F. Two unexcused absences from regular meetings in any one year (January 1—December 31) shall constitute an automatic resignation of members holding office on boards that meet bimonthly.

G. One unexcused absence from regular meetings in any one year (January 1—December 31) shall constitute an automatic resignation of members holding office on boards that meet quarterly.

H. Upon written request by a member, the mayor may excuse an otherwise unexcused absence.

I. Any or all members of any city committee or commission may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by a vote of the city council. (Ord. 1334 § 2, 2018; Ord. 1017 § 2, 2003; Ord. 899, 1999)

2.34.020 Excused absence defined.

An "excused absence" may be granted if the member is hospitalized due to illness, serving on jury duty, serving in the military, or has suffered a death in the family (spouse, parent/step-parent, grandparent, brother, sister, mother in-law, father in-law, child, grandchild, or any member of the immediate household). (Ord. 1017 § 3, 2003; Ord. 899, 1999)
